The 1973 Student Council, working with Mr. Charles Brown, principal, accomplished a number of long-sought goals. They brought about the presentation of mini-courses—a first for the Northside District. Also accredited to their efforts is the provision of a smoking area on campus and the relaxing of the student dress code, allowing a boy's hair to reach the bottom of his shirt collar. The Council also requested exemptions from final exams possible for all classmen passing the course and having six or less absences in a semester.

1972 YUKON DAYS—

The Yukon Days Carnival is sponsored by the senior class each year in October. This year they netted a profit of $450.00. This was the most successful carnival ever held in the seven years of Yukon Days tradition. More than three thousand people, ranging from toddlers to teachers attended the festivities which ran from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Participants enjoyed the widely varied eating places, along with many shows and games of skill. The festival was followed by a dance in the evening.

—OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

DEBBIE SEPULVEDA CROWNED

The 1972 Homecoming was held during half-time ceremonies of the Holmes-Marshall game on November 17. Debbie Sepulveda was crowned Homecoming Queen. She was chosen from a court of seven girls nominated by the Senior Class. Following tradition, last year's queen, Sharyll Tenneyuca, returned to crown Debbie. The Homecoming Dance was held on the following night in the Gym, and the court was introduced.

7th ANNUAL HOMECOMING QUEEN

The 1972 Homecoming Court: Gina Uvietta, Kay Schott, Martha Mitchell, Debbie Supulveda, Cindy Erickson, Sherry Bernard, Nancy Jungman, Sharyll Tenneyuca, escorted by Chap Oliver, Howard Thornton, Tommy Armstrong, Wade Stogsdill, Tommy Flowers, Gary Hardee, and Kenny Baker.

SENIOR PLAY DRAWS

SELL-OUT CROWD

The Holmes Auditorium was filled to near capacity on Friday April 13 and Saturday April 14 when the 1973 Senior Class presented a musical performance of the play "Li'l Abner". The lead was played by Donny Saathoff while Daisy Mae was portrayed by Kathy Curtis. Mammy and Pappy Yokum, played by Debbie Powers and Jimmy Gonzales, were also featured members of the cast which included almost 75 members. The Holmes Band, directed by Mr. Gary Rosenblatt, provided the musical accompaniment. The play was considered a tremendous success and the Senior Class netted a profit of nearly $1000.

THE 1972 CRYSTAL BALL

The 1972 Crystal Ball was held December 2 at the El Tropicano Motor Hotel. The theme was "Dove of Peace" with music by the Eastern Fleet. Kenny Baker and Jean Lumbart were chosen at the ball to reign over the court. Duchesses of the court were Lynne Duke, Alice Webster, Connie Klepper, Vicki Gil, Martha Mitchell, and Leticia Eguia. They were escorted by Tommy Armstrong, Bill Rice, Jack Reigal, Gary Hardee, Louis Martinez, and Yuki Nakamura. The ball was attended by approximately 110 couples and was a great success for the Student Council.

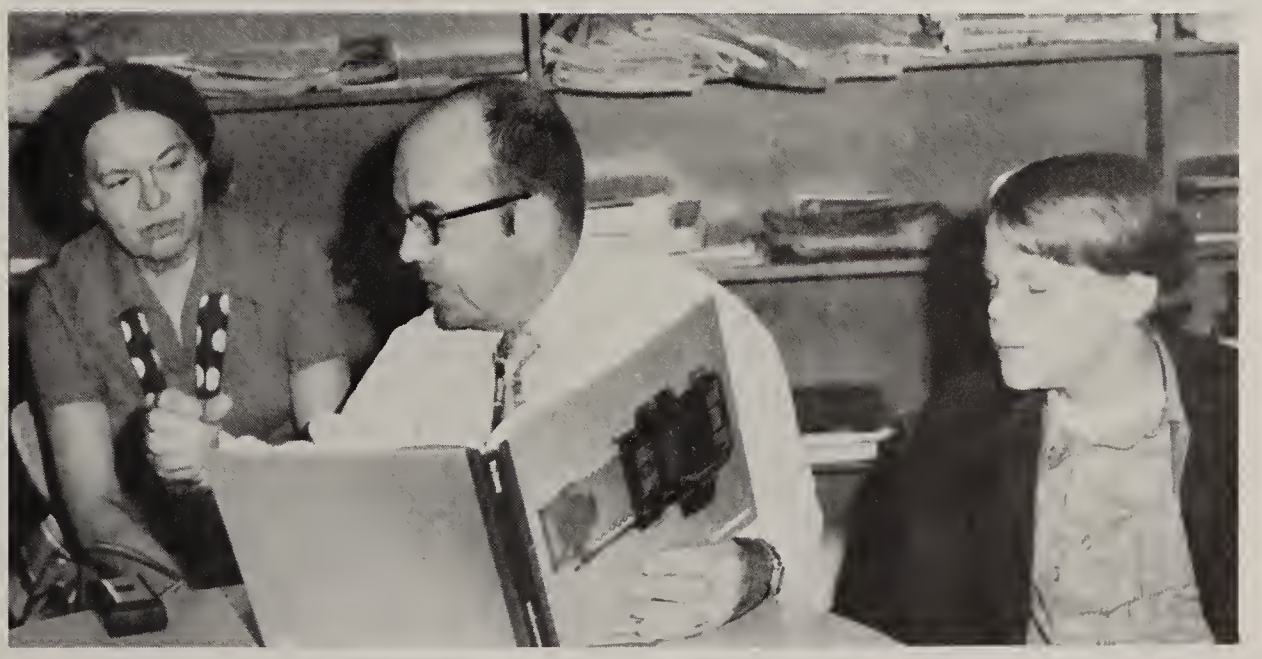

MINI-COURSES PROMOTE STUDENT INTEREST

Mini-Courses were offered at Holmes to students and parents for the first time in the history of NISD on February 20, 21, and 22. The objective of the courses was to increase student interest in school and the learning process. Administrators and students felt they were successful in promoting these objectives due to the substantial attendance over three days. Approximately 60 courses were offered this year. Popular courses included Fencing, Modeling, Judo/Karate, and Square Dancing.

SHOW BIZ 1973

It was Sharon Doughty and Marshelle Moorman singing "The Boxer" to their own accompaniment, for a 2nd place rating; it was "Trapezius" winning first place for their "heavy" music . . .

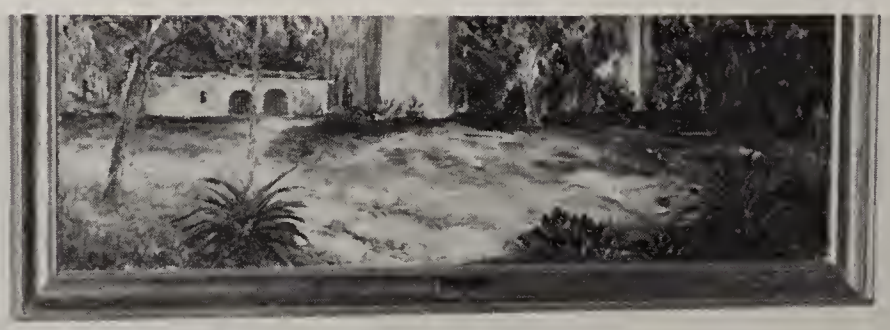

. . . it was four emcees, Jimmy Gonzalez, Susan Droke, Joan Lambert, and Dan Klepper, instead of one; it was Susan Saenz, dancing her way to a third place trophy; it was Jane Cheyne's grace under pressure when the microphones failed to operate, with a little "ad-lib" help from Jimmy Gonzalez; and it was Pearl Suarez, singing "Granada", an authentic folk song from Spain.

MOONLIGHT AND ROSES

THEME FOR PROM

"Knights in White Satin" was selected by the senior class as the theme song for 1973. Their prom was held at Canyon Creek Country Club on May 5. A buffet dinner followed by an awards ceremony preceded the dance which lasted until midnight. The awards ceremony included the presentation of trophies for the Biggest Help to the Senior Class, the Most Popular Girl and Boy, the Best Dressed Girl and Boy, the Most Likely to Succeed, the Most Handsome Boy and Prettiest Girl, and the Most Talented Boy and Girl. Senior Class sponsors Mrs. Nancy Klepper and Miss Pat Lawson were presented gifts of appreciation by the senior class president Jack Riegel.

GRADUATION REHEARSAL

Practice was the name of the game on the warm, sunny morning of graduation day. The setting was in the final stages of preparation. The cues were rehearsed and the seniors were given the general idea of the commencement exercise. The graduating class was patient with the extended rehearsals and afterwards treated to a barbeque dinner—the last meal the class members would enjoy together.

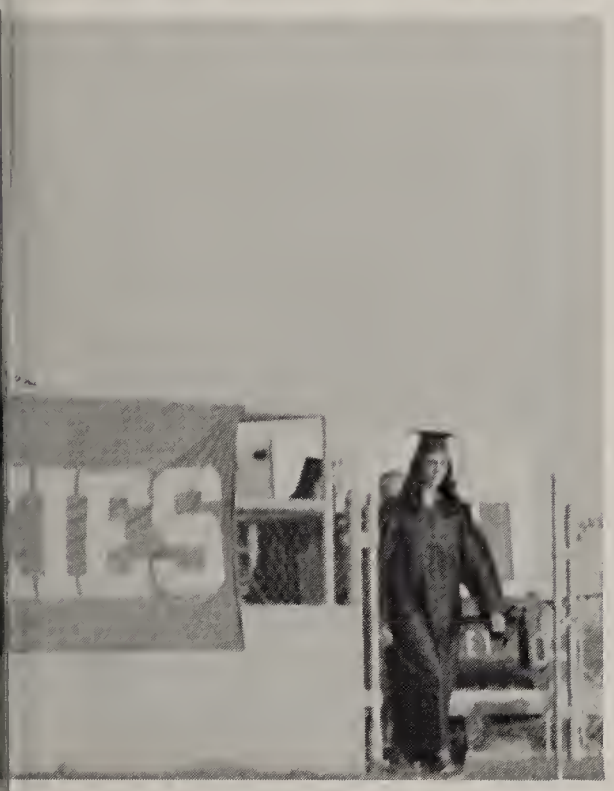

GRADUATION AT NORTHSIDE STADIUM

Holmes graduated 343 seniors at Northside Stadium, May 30, 1973. Commencement exercises on the open field was a first for the Northside District. The cool evening breeze puffed up the gowns, tossed hairdos, knocked over a couple of caps, and dried the silent tears of many as the members of the class said goodbye.

LET A TRINITY STUDENT TELL YOU ABOUT THE TRINITY PLAN

In rapid-fire order he'll tell you three things: THE TRINITY PLAN is Trinity University's undergraduate curriculum . . . THE TRINITY PLAN lets him plan his own degree program . . . THE TRINITY PLAN doesn't ask anyone to repeat material mastered in high school. Let the Trinity student catch his breath and then ask for a quick history of THE TRINITY PLAN. He'll tell you that five years ago Trinity's students and faculty threw a tired, lockstep curriculum out the window. They substituted 10 general goals which a Trinity student meets at his own rate of speed . . . taking advantage of many extensions of THE TRINITY PLAN . . . honors programs, elective pass-fail courses, independent study or undergraduate research.

If you like what you've heard, write Trinity's Director of Admissions for catalogues and illustrated brochures. Trinity has 33 undergraduate programs in a College of Arts and Sciences, a School of Engineering and a School of Business Administration.
